01 lug 2026 07 July 2026

English translation, July 2026

1/7 WED 13th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

(Diocese of Trento: optional memorial of Blessed Antonio Rosmini, †1855)

Amos 5:14-15, 21-24; Ps 49; Mt 8:28-34

Seek good Amos 5:14

"Seek good and not evil, that you may live": but what is good and what is evil? We do not know; we always ask God. If we do what is good in His eyes, we will have peace and joy; otherwise, we harm ourselves. I will listen to Jesus and learn from Him and His apostles.

2/7 THU 13th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

Amos 7:10-17; Ps 18; Mt 9:1-8

Israel must go into exile

07 July 2026

Amos 7:11

The prophets have a difficult task: to call people back to faithfulness to God and to announce the disaster that disobedience to Him inevitably brings into life! Difficult for us too, who live among those who do not know how to welcome Him, do not know how to obey Jesus. Courage, He is near, and He will triumph again!

3/7 FRI ST. THOMAS, Apostle [P]

Eph 2:19-22; Ps 116; Jn 20:24-29

My Lord and my God Jn 20:28

From being an unbeliever, Thomas became a teacher of faith: "My Lord and my God." He believed that Jesus offered Himself for him on the cross and conquered death, and thus he recognizes Him as the Lord of his life, his God, and gives Him total trust and obedience.

I too join in believing in You, Jesus, "My Lord and my God!"

4/7 SAT 13th Week of Ordinary Time [I]

(optional memorial: St. Elizabeth of Portugal, †1336)

Amos 9:11-15; Ps 84; Mt 9:14-17

New wine is put into fresh wineskins Mt 9:17

You are the new wine, Jesus! You bring a new joy because you love and ask for love. Old wine is a life satisfied with having obeyed some rules. With you in my heart, I am not satisfied with myself, but full of joy, because I am loved by you, and you give me the ability to love, always!

5/7 SUN 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A [II]

Zech 9:9-10; Ps 145; Rom 8:9, 11-13;

Mt 11:25-30

You have hidden these things from the wise Mt 11:25

Jesus rejoices and praises the Father, who is generous to all. Those who have a proud heart, those who think they've found the way to heaven through their own efforts, or who are wise according to the world, cannot compete with the "poor in spirit." These individuals know they have no merits but trust in the goodness of the Lord and obey Him with humility. 6/7 MON 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

(optional memorial: St. Maria Goretti, virgin and martyr, †1902)

Hos 2:16-18, 21-22; Ps 145; Mt 9:18-26

I will now allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her Hos 2:14

How many times the Lord cannot accomplish this desire of His because He finds me always so very busy! He desires to meet me and speak to me to transmit to me the peace, strength, joy, hope, and wisdom... that renews my entire life and relationships. The encounter with Jesus is healing; it is resurrection!

01 lug 2026 07 July 2026

07 July 2026

7/7 TUE 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

Hos 8:4-7, 11-13; Ps 115; Mt 9:32-38

Therefore ask the Lord of the harvest Mt 9:38

Jesus looks upon everyone with love and has compassion for those who seek Him. He exhorts His collaborators to pray to the Father to always send workers, people who love Him and want to make Him known to everyone. We will welcome His exhortation and pray to Him with hope and perseverance.

8/7 WED 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

Hos 10:1-3, 7-8, 12; Ps 105; Mt 10:1-7

The kingdom of heaven has come near Mt 10:7

This is the announcement that the Twelve are charged with. They must convey this to everyone, and they will do so with words accompanied by concrete acts of love towards the sick, lepers, the possessed, and people without life. The kingdom of heaven is, the living together of those who love with the love of God!

9/7 THU 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

(optional memorial: Sts. Augustine Zhao Rong and companions, Chinese martyrs, † 1648-1930; Proper of the Diocese of Trento: memorial of Saint Paolina Visintainer, virgin, † 1942)

Hos 11:1-4, 8-9; Ps 79 (80); Mt 10:7-15

When Israel was a child, I loved him Hos 11:1

Israel is the holy people born from the faith of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; it is a prophecy of the new People of God, the Church. It is the name, the intimate reality of every soul loved, cared for, and made to grow by the Lord. I too, and you too, are that Israel!

10/7 FRI 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

Hos 14:2-10; Ps 50 (51); Mt 10:16-23

I will heal their disloyalty Hos 14:4

Every infidelity to the Lord, that is, every disobedience to His wise instructions as Father and Creator, causes serious harm to us and many others: it is as if a disease struck our life, weakening it and taking away its joy. And we cannot heal ourselves alone! Only He, the Father, whom we have offended, can save us, and He does so when with humility, we welcome His medicine.

11/7 SAT ST. BENEDICT, († 547), Patron of Europe [P]

Prov 2:1-9; Ps 33 (34); Mt 19:27-29

We have left everything and followed you Mt 19:27

01 lug 2026 07 July 2026

07 July 2026

Saint Benedict dedicated his entire life to Jesus, and together with many brothers, he bore witness to the love of God through prayer and the toil of work blessed by the Father. Today, he intercedes from heaven for the people of Europe, who are in need of conversion to Jesus to live a new and fraternal life, in peace and solidarity.

12/7 SUN 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A [III]

Is 55:10-11; Ps 65 (64); Rom 8:18-23;

Mt 13:1-23

A Sower went out to sow Mt 13:3

Jesus, you "go out" even today from the heart of the Father "to sow" in my heart His Word: His life, His kingdom, His love, His Spirit. When I welcome it, when I make a sacrifice for the joy of my brother, I will bear fruit: I will be like good soil fertilized by the rain. 13/7 MON 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

(optional memorial: St. Henry, † 1024)

Is 1:10-17; Ps 50 (49); Mt 10:34 - 11:1

Rescue the oppressed Is 1:17

What gives joy to God, says the prophet, are not the things we offer Him or the festivities we organize. He rejoices when He sees that we have learned from Him to love those who suffer, to bring life and joy to those who lack it. This simple teaching is also repeated to us by Jesus. 14/7 TUE 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

(optional memorial: St. Camillus de Lellis, priest, † 1614)

Is 7:1-9; Ps 48 (47); Mt 11:20-24

Be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint Is 7:4

It is the Lord who, through His prophet Isaiah, reassures King Ahaz, who is worried and agitated about the advance of the enemies. Likewise, we, when faced with serious calamities, will not lose hope and inner peace. We will listen to our Shepherds, who know how to guide us to the Lord.

15/7 WED 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

(memorial: St. Bonaventure, bishop and doctor, † 1274)

Is 10:5-7, 13-16; Ps 94 (93); Mt 11:25-27

No one knows the Father except the Son Mt 11:27

Thank you, Jesus, that, with your words and the gift of faith in you, you have made me experience that God is a Father who always loves me. Thank you for the experience of His providence in so many circumstances. Thank you for the gift of participating in His desire that everyone, one day, may be gathered around you, in your Church.

16/7 THU 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

01 lug 2026 07 July 2026

07 July 2026

(optional memorial: Our Lady of Mount Carmel)

Is 26:7-9, 12, 16-19; Ps 102 (101);

Mt 11:28-30

The way of the righteous is level Is 26:7

Jesus invites us to come to him to be relieved from the oppression and weariness in which sin--- both our own and that of the world around us---has trapped us. It is He, Jesus, who is the just one of whom the prophet speaks. Walking with Him is a joy, a security, a sure hope, because with Him no one gets lost and no one grows weary: his path is straight.

17/7 FRI 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

Is 38:1-6, 21-22, 7-8; Ps: Isaiah 38:10, 11, 12, 16; Mt 12:1-8

I have heard your prayer Is 38:5

The prophet reports to the sick king the words of God. The king had prayed to God to grant him a few more years of life: his request was supported by his obedience. In fact, he had always sought to do God's will. Now God tells him that He wants to grant his prayer: he will live another fifteen years! I too learn to accompany my requests to God with obedience to His desires!

18/7 SAT 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

Mic 2:1-5; Ps 9B; Mt 12:14-21

Here is my servant Mt 12:18

The evangelist sees the fulfillment of the most beautiful prophecies. Jesus is truly the servant of God, the servant of His love, of His mercy. Everyone sees Him and everyone enjoys Him, starting with the sick and infirm and even the possessed. Everyone regains hope and courage to live in this world, since he is among us.

19/7 SUN 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A [IV]

Wis 12:13, 16-19; Ps 85; Rom 8:26-27;

Mt 13:24-43

The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man Mt 13:37

The parables of Jesus begin with the one about the Sower, who goes out to do his work, a work that serves to give food to many. The Son of Man goes out: He came from heaven, His dwelling, and he took the seed from the heart of the Father. It is all a gift of love. Wherever it takes root, it will bear fruit, and the hunger of man's heart will be satisfied!

20/7 MON 16th Week in Ordinary Time [IV]

(optional memorial: St. Apollinaris, Bishop and Martyr, 2nd Century)

07 July 2026

Mic 6:1-4, 6-8; Ps 49; Mt 12:38-42

Walk humbly with your God

Mic 6:8

Is this a piece of advice or a command? A gift! Humility is the characteristic of Jesus, shared by Mary, his mother. It is the color and the warmth of divine life. God is humility, as Saint Francis of Assisi said. Do you want to resemble God and enjoy his company? Walk humbly with him.

21/7 TUE 16th Week in Ordinary Time [IV]

(optional memorial: St. Lawrence of Brindisi, Priest and Doctor of the Church, † 1619)

Mic 7:14-15, 18-20; Ps 84; Mt 12:46-50

Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity? Mic 7:18

Jesus, you have made us know the mercy of the Father by forgiving the paralytic and the sinner in the house of Simon the Pharisee. Why were they all amazed? In fact, why did they accuse you of blasphemy? Even though they were religious, they did not yet know the heart of the Father. Without you, no one knows His love for the oppressed and weary due to sin: only you know the love of the Father, and you give it to us!

22/7 WED ST. MARY MAGDALENE [P]

So of Sg 3:1-4 or 2 Cor 5:14-17; Ps 62;

Jn 20:1-2, 11-18

Jesus said to her, "Mary!" Jn 20:16

The Gospel presents Mary of Magdala at the climax of her life: she encountered Jesus, alive with new life, just when she least expected it. It is He who makes Himself known. And it is always like this: we meet Jesus when He wants us to, not when we decide. For this reason, we should always be vigilant and attentive.

23/7 THU ST. BRIDGET, († 1373), Patroness of Europe [P]

Gal 2:19-20; Ps 33; Jn 15:1-8

I am the true vine Jn 15:1

The true vine is the one that bears ripe fruit suitable for making new wine. The true vine is the one that does not deceive, and satisfies man's thirst. Jesus, you are the true vine! I rejoice to be united with you, that is, being a branch that bears your fruit. And so that the fruit may be good, I prepare myself to be pruned by the shears of our Father.

With St. Bridget, we continue to pray for the leaders of Europe. 24/7 FRI 16th Week in Ordinary Time [IV]

(optional memorial: St. Charbel Makhlof, priest, † 1898)

Jer 3:14-17; Ps: Jer 31:10-13; Mt 13:18-23

01 lug 2026 07 July 2026

07 July 2026

The good soil is the one who hears the Word Mt 13:23

Your Word, Jesus, enters my heart; when it finds it free of weeds, it produces a fruit that the hungry can enjoy. I will ensure that it is not filled with worries, that it is free from love of money, far from places occupied by the devil. Let me hear your desires, Jesus!

25/7 SAT ST. JAMES, Apostle [P]

2 Cor 4:7-15; Ps 125; Mt 20:20-28

The one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also 2 Cor 4:14

The apostle James was killed because he was faithful to you, Jesus. He did not deny you. He drank from your cup, he suffered to make your Father and ours shine in the world. He gave his life to be your witness. Now you grant him new and eternal life, the life you received from the Father on the third day.

26/7 SUN 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A [I]

1 Kgs 3:5, 7-12; Ps 118; Rom 8:28-30;

Mt 13:44-52

The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in the field

Mt 13:44

No one enters the kingdom of heaven with the help of weapons. It is a desirable and sought after treasure, but hidden. Whoever finds it should not immediately disclose their discovery. It can be possessed if it matures in silence. Whoever finds you, Jesus, will wait to speak. His changed and joyful life will be the beginning of a true and credible announcement.

27/7 MON 17th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

Jer 13:1-11; Ps: Deut 32:18-21; Mt 13:31-35

I made the whole house of Israel cling to me Jer 13:11

The prophet Jeremiah, inspired by God, put a belt around his waist. However, it became rotten and was of no use. What was the lesson to be learned from the prophet's gesture? God chose the people to be united with Him and obedient to Him, but instead... Instead, they give in to vices, like idolaters. This people no longer serves the purpose, it is useless for God's plan.

28/7 TUE 17th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

Jer 14:17-22; Ps 78; Mt 13:36-43

Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Jer 14:22

Jeremiah continues to prophesy in order to make the people think, as they have succumbed to idolatry. Idols are the vices of man, considered true well-being. But they do not help; they do not give man and his fields what is needed for life, peace, and joy. What is the use of serving them?

01 lug 2026 07 July 2026

07 July 2026

29/7 WED Sts. Martha, Mary, and Lazarus (memorial)

1 Jn 4:7-16; Ps 33; Jn 11:19-27 or

Lk 10:38-42

Your brother will rise again

Jn 11:23

Martha receives this promise from Jesus. She does not understand; she doesn't yet know that every word of Jesus is a truth more true than we can comprehend. To help her know him as "the resurrection and the life" and to prepare her for her own death and new life, Jesus calls her brother Lazarus, and he comes out of the tomb, where he lay cold and wrapped.<sup>30/7 THU 17th Week in Ordinary Time [I]</sup>

(optional memorial: St. Peter Chrysologus, bishop and doctor, †450)

Jer 18:1-6; Ps 145; Mt 13:47-53

Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand

Jer 18:6

When the potter works, if a vessel doesn't turn out as he intended, he kneads the clay again and starts over. We, the prophet says, are like that clay: we are in the hands of the Lord and we allow ourselves to be shaped as He desires, so as not to be useless in the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>31/7 FRI 17th Week in Ordinary Time [I]</sup>

(memorial: St. Ignatius of Loyola, priest, †1556)

Jer 26:1-9; Ps 68; Mt 13:54-58

If you will not walk in my law I have set before you... Jer 26:4

What happens if we do not obey the Lord? When we are not obedient to God, we ruin ourselves and we ruin others. We become like salt that has lost its taste, which ends up being thrown on the street and trampled underfoot by everyone.

<sup>1/7 MON 13th Week in Ordinary Time [I]</sup>

Am 2:6-10,13-16; Ps 49; Mt 8:18-22

The Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head Mt 8:20

A scribe would like to follow Jesus. Instead of rejoicing in his intention, Jesus puts him to the test. What do you hope for? Perhaps to gain something? The only gain will be spiritual, certainly not material. To follow Jesus, it is necessary to be willing to give up everything, even life.

<sup>2/7 TUE 13th Week in Ordinary Time [I]</sup>

07 July 2026

Am 3:1-8, 4:11-12; Ps 5; Mt 8:23-27

You were like a burning stick... but you have not returned to me Am 4:11

The prophet is tasked by God to speak sternly to the people, who believe they can live without obeying Him. That is not life, it is a disaster! If the sufferings we have brought upon ourselves so far have not served us, what will God have to do to awaken in us the will to return to Him, to listen to Him and love Him?

3/7 WED FEAST OF ST. THOMAS, Apostle [P]

Eph 2:19-22; Ps 116; Jn 20:24-29

Do not be unbelieving, but believe Jn 20:27

In Thomas, we see both doubt and faith. He came to faith thanks to the mercy of Jesus, who benevolently satisfied his request. The apostle could indeed reach out his finger, but faith came as an unexpected gift. It is given to us when we humble ourselves to consider others more capable than ourselves, believing in the testimony of their joy.

4/7 THU 13th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

(Optional memorial: St. Elizabeth of Portugal, † 1336)

Am 7,10-17; Ps 18; Mt 9,1-8

Take heart, son, your sins are forgiven Mt 9,2

Who knows how the paralyzed man felt when he was called "son" by Jesus! The love of the Lord reached him at the roots of life. He had wanted to meet Jesus at all costs: this is faith that brings us closer to God, faith that obtains forgiveness. And this is the truest miracle, so much so that now that man could live even without healing.

5/7 FRI 13th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

(Optional memorial: St. Antonio Maria Zaccaria, priest, † 1539)

Am 8,4-6.9-12; Ps 118; Mt 9,9-13

Follow me Mt 9,9

Just one word, encompassing three: you follow me! Is it a command? Is it an invitation? Matthew perceived love, love that captured his soul. And there he is, following Jesus, with such joy that he organizes a banquet like a wedding for his colleagues and friends.

6/7 SAT 13th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

(Optional memorial: St. Maria Goretti, virgin and martyr, † 1902)

Am 9,11-15; Ps 84; Mt 9,14-17

I will restore the fortunes of my people Am 9,14

01 lug 2026 07 July 2026

07 July 2026

Prophets should not only announce punishments. They threaten them so that no one seeks to hinder the will of God, which is the salvation and well-being of the people. To encourage obedience and conversion, they make known God's true desire: the joy of all His people.

7/7 SUN 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B [II]

Ez 2,2-5; Ps 122; 2 Cor 12,7-10; Mk 6,1-6

What is this wisdom, which has been given to him? Mk 6,2

The people of Nazareth realize that Jesus' words are rich in life, light, tenderness, and everything that brings joy and satisfies the heart: his words are true wisdom. They had never heard such rich words from a man before. They could have recognized that they came from God, the God who loves mankind.

8/7 MON 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

Hos 2,16-18.21-22; Ps 144; Mat 9,18-26

Courage, daughter, your faith has saved you Mt 9,22

She was fearful because she had touched Jesus' cloak without saying anything to anyone, without asking for permission. Her faith, although hidden, was pleasing to God, but now she must profess it to everyone, so that the glory of God, which is Jesus, may be revealed.

9/7 TUE 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

(Optional memorial: Sts. Augustine Zhao Rong and companions, Chinese martyrs, † 1648-1930; St. Paulina Visintainer, virgin, † 1942)

Hos 8,4-7.11-13; Ps 113B; Mat 9,32-38

Pray to the Lord of the harvest, to send out laborers Mt 9,38

The once mute demoniac, now liberated, speaks freely. How much sufferings of this kind paralyze the people! How much work in the kingdom of heaven! Jesus is thinking about the future, when he will no longer be able to act: what will the disciples do? They will ask the Father to send those who love as he loves!

10/7 WED 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

Hos 10,1-3.7-8.12; Ps 104; Mat 10,1-7

First, Simon, called Peter

Mt 10,2

The people of Nazareth realize that Jesus' words are rich in life, light, tenderness, and everything that brings

07 July 2026

The first workers in the kingdom of heaven are called by Jesus himself. He chooses twelve, like the sons of Jacob. Among them there is order and clarity: there is one, called first, who will always remain first. His name is Simon, like the son of Jacob whom Joseph held back in Egypt as a hostage. He will be steadfast, like the rock upon which a building can be founded.

11/7 THU FEAST OF ST. BENEDICT, († 547), Patron Saint of Europe [P]

Prv 2:1-9; Ps 33; Mat 19:27-29

He will inherit eternal life

Mt 19:29

Whoever leaves everything to follow Jesus freely has a guaranteed inheritance, eternal life. But what kind of life is it? Today, we can receive the answer from St. Benedict. Eternal life is one that does not rely on money and riches. It doesn't need them, and if they exist, they will be used to love and free people from misery. Eternal life is the tender and strong heart of God, the Father.

12/7 FRI 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

Hos 14:2-10; Ps 50; Mat 10:16-23

It is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you Mt 10:20

The Twelve are given a special task that easily attracts enmity. They are to carry out their mission in a world where people are like wolves to one another. Instead, they will be like innocent lambs who do not think about defending themselves. This is not a problem, says Jesus, because "the Spirit of your Father" will be in you to support your testimony.

13/7 SAT 14th Week in Ordinary Time [II]

(Optional Memorial: St. Henry, † 1024)

Is 6:1-8; Ps 92; Mat 10:24-33

You are worth more than many sparrows Mt 10:31

If sparrows are valued by God - after all, they are His creatures - how much more valuable are those who answer the call to follow the Son! These peoples know, therefore, that God is on their side, their ally, who loves them, and therefore they will leave all fear outside the door. They will proclaim the Word that they have received, a Word that gives life to those who do not yet have it.

14/7 SUN 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B [III]

Am 7:12-15; Ps 84; Eph 1:3-14; Mk 6:7-13

Jesus began to send them out two by two Mk 6:7

Jesus gives the work program to the Twelve. The toil that Jesus sees as necessary in the kingdom of heaven is not the kind that produces wealth, but one that is sustained in living as brothers, without discord or selfishness. It is a work that frees people from spirits of selfishness and enmity, strengthening the will to love.

The people of Nazareth realize that Jesus' words are rich in life, light, tenderness, and everything ~~that~~ brings

07 July 2026

In this way, life truly becomes rich! This is the work entrusted to the Twelve.

15/7 MON 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

(Memorial: St. Bonaventure, bishop and doctor, † 1274)

Is 1:10-17; Ps 49; Mt 10:34-11:1

Whoever gives only a cup of cold water... to one of these little ones... because he is a disciple... Mt 10:42

Jesus tells us that loving him is dangerous, it has a cost. Yet it is the only thing to do to change the world. Those who love Jesus find themselves on another level, living a life that is not only human but divine. Even those who, without knowing anything about him, benefit his followers, will partake in the beauty and tenderness of God's heart.

16/7 TUE 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

(Memorial: Our Lady of Mount Carmel)

Is 7:1-9; Ps 47; Mt 11:20-24

Be calm, do not fear Is 7:4

The prophet encourages the king in a time of grave danger. The enemies are at the gates, but there is more than just the enemies: he can rely on his alliance with God. If he obeys Him, he will have nothing to fear. Only if he disregards Him will he be defeated: "If you do not stand firm in faith, you shall not stand at all."

I trust in you, my Lord!

17/7 WED 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

Is 10:5-7, 13-16; Ps 93; Mt 11:25-27

Everything has been handed over to me by my Father

Mt 11:27

The Father has nothing left, for He has given everything to the Son. Therefore, we will be united with the Son, in order to enjoy the Father's goods and live a divine life. And what is that "everything" that the Son now possesses? That "everything" is the fullness of selfless love. The Father has nothing else to give!

18/7 THU 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

Is 26:7-9, 12, 16-19; Ps 101; Mt 11:28-30

Come to me Mt 11:28

What a generous invitation! Jesus knows that we are tired and burdened, weakened by our sins and oppressed by the sins of the world we live in. That is why He wants us with Him. We will not disturb Him, but on the contrary, it will be Him with His tenderness and mercy, who will change our lives. Thank you, Jesus!

19/7 FRI 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

Is 38:1-6, 21-22, 7-8;

Ps: Is 38:10, 11, 12, 16; Mt12:1-8

The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath Mt 12:8

If He is the "Lord of the Sabbath", He can dispose of this day as He sees fit. He uses it to give glory to God, who has given the Sabbath as a day where man can enjoy freedom from the burden of work and fullness of life. The effort of preparing food is not a burden, but a joy to bless God!

Jesus, be the Lord of all my time!

20/7 SAT 15th Week in Ordinary Time [III]

(Optional memorial: St. Apollinaris, bishop and martyr, 2nd century)

Mic 2:1-5; Ps: Ps 9B; Mt 12:14-21

I will put my Spirit upon him

Mt 12:18

It is the Word of the prophet Micah that Jesus, with his actions, is revealing. It is about him that the prophet speaks. It is he who heals all and does not boast about it. He lives with humility and hiddenness, just as the prophet says. In him, no other spirit acts than that of the paternal love of the God of peace and love.

21/7 SUN 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B [IV]

Jer 23:1-6; Ps: Ps 22; Eph 2:13-18;

Mk 6:30-34

Come away by yourselves to a deserted place Mk 6:31

Jesus, you know that true refreshment and rest come from spending time with you. By being with you without distractions, we regain strength to continue loving. I accept your invitation and come. From you always come a light and a strength that renew everything.

22/7 MON FEAST OF ST. MARY MAGDALENE (P)

Songs of Solomon 3:1-4 or 2Cor 5:14-17; Ps 62; Jn 20:1-2.11-18

Jesus said to her, 'Mary' Jn 20:16

Mary of Magdala had tears in her eyes and her hands filled with fragrant oil, when your voice, speaking her name, awakened her. Now she sees you, Jesus, and recognizes you.

The people of Nazareth realize that Jesus' words are rich in life, light, tenderness, and everything 15 that brings

07 July 2026

I too also share in her joy, as she, the first on earth to proclaim that you are risen and live forever.

23/7 TUE FEAST OF ST. BRIDGET († 1373) Patroness of Europe (P)

Gal 2:19-20; Ps 33; Jn 15:1-8

I am the true vine Jn 15:1

St. Bridget, like St. Catherine, her contemporary, is a branch of the same vine. A branch different in language, country, and experiences, but producing the same fruit that nourishes joy among people. Those who abide in Jesus have a life to give to their brothers and sisters! That is why she is also the patron saint of Europe: a arduous task that will bear abundant fruit!

24/7 WED 16th Week in Ordinary Time [IV]

(Optional memorial: St. Charbel Makhlouf, priest, † 1898)

Jer 1:1.4-10; Ps 70; Mt 13:1-9

The sower went out to sow

Mt 13:3

Your Word, Jesus, even when I speak or write it, who knows where it falls! Not all of it will bear fruit, not all will nourish people. Yet, if I were to stop sowing, it would give life nowhere. Your joy, Jesus, sustains me to continue without getting discouraged, because at least a quarter will fall on good soil.

25/7 THU FEAST OF ST. JAMES APOSTLE [P]

2 Cor 4:7-15; Ps 125; Mt 20:20-28

You will drink my cup Mt 20:23

This promise of Jesus has been fulfilled. James drank the cup of suffering, both when he was imprisoned with all the apostles and when he was later beheaded alone.

Shall I also drink your cup, Jesus? How? I will drink it when on the last day I surrender myself to you, but even now, by handing over to you the things and strengths that seem precious to me.

26/7 FRI 16th Week in Ordinary Time [IV]

(Memorial: Sts. Joachim and Anne, parents of B.V. Mary)

Jer 3:14-17; Ps: Jer 31:10-13; Mt 13:18-23

I will give you shepherds after my own heart Jer 3:15

I too also share in her joy, as she, the first on earth to proclaim that you are risen and live forever. 16

07 July 2026

While Jesus explains the parable of the sower, the prophet Jeremiah gives us a comforting promise. We cannot expect much from men, but God does not abandon His people, He does not abandon His Church. We will have shepherds after His own heart! Will I be humble enough to let myself be guided and guarded by them, to accept that they keep me united with all His sheep?

27/7 SAT 16th Week in Ordinary Time [IV]

Jer 7:1-11; Ps 83; Mt 13:24-30

Hear the word of the Lord, all you of Judah Jer 7:2

How often have we heard this invitation: Listen! God speaks because He wants us to live in relationship with Him; immersed in His love, enjoying communion. Listening is important for us. Jesus Himself is the Word, the sure and wise Word of the Father. Listening is the first and true love with which we respond to what we receive from Him.

28/7 SUN 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B [I]

2 Kngs 4:42-44; Ps 114; Eph 4:1-6;

Jn 6:1-15

Make the people sit down

Jn 6:10

Jesus responds to the disciples, disconcerted by the situation they must face. A crowd of people, filled with the Word of the Master, are now hungry for bread. They have so little of it that they are ashamed to say it. Jesus is not concerned. He knows that the Father sees. He obeys His love and asks for obedience from the disciples and the crowd. The disciples will make the crowd sit down, and the crowd will obey: those who are seated will receive the bread!

29/7 MON Memorial of Sts. Martha, Mary, and Lazarus [P]

1 Jn 4:7-16; Ps 33; Jn 11:19-27 or

Lk 10:38-42

I am the resurrection and the life Jn 11:25

Standing in front of Lazarus' tomb, Jesus reveals His identity. Until now, He was known as the friend of the two sisters and the dead man, but now everyone will know a surprising, shocking, even incomprehensible truth. He is for us that life which lifts us above this world, which makes us be 'in', but not 'of' the world. We will have to partake of Him to understand, indeed, to embrace the mystery.

30/7 TUE 17th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

(Optional memorial: St. Peter Chrysologus, bishop and doctor, † 450)

Jer 14:17-22; Ps 78; Mt 13:36-43

I too also share in her joy, as she, the first on earth to proclaim that you are risen and live forever. 17

07 July 2026

Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so... Mt 13:40

The parable is simple and describes the situation in which we find ourselves. We have the grace of being compared to the good wheat, but accompanied and surrounded by those who would like to prevent us from bearing fruit for the kingdom. With humility and charity, we await the harvest. Then, purified, we too will shine like children of God.

31/7 WED 17th Week in Ordinary Time [I]

(Memorial: St. Ignatius of Loyola, priest, † 1556)

Jer 15:10,16-21; Ps 58; Mt 13:44-46

I am with you to save you

Jer 15:20

God consoles the prophet, not abandoning him in the hands of the wicked who want to eliminate him. It is a prophecy of the death and resurrection of Jesus, whom all the prophets announce the coming of. He will remain hidden, like a treasure in a field of no value. Whoever discovers the treasure, like the one who seeks and finds the pearl, sells everything he has: nothing can equal its value!
